Elderly Citizens Centre Youths Fined After Pier Street Brawl To be Opened Sunday

The official opening of the Elderly Citizens' Centre in Sargood Street, will take place on Sunday afternoon.

The ceremony will be performed by the Shire President, Mr. W. G. Cresser, JP, in the presence of Altona elderly citizens, leaders of various welfare organisations, and Member of Parliament.

The Centre, which is probably the most modern in the State, has been designed by Mr Robert Warren, architect, of Geelong, who has been entrusted with all of Altona Shire Council building projects to date. The contractors are Messrs Weaver and Smith, of Altona, who have also been responsible for the erection of the Youth Hall in Nellie Street last year, and the Lifesavers' Training Centre on the Esplanade, in 1957.

The cost of the new building is £8340, £4000 of which has come from Government Grants, and £500 from local contributions. Balance of the money has come from Council revenue and loan funds. The furnishings, which have cost about £500, have come from local contributions which were raised some time ago by the public committee appointed for the purpose.

Invitations have been issued by the Council to all known elderly citizens in Altona to attend the function.

After the ceremony and brief period for inspection of the building, afternoon tea will be served in the marquee adjacent to the centre by Standard Vacuum Refining Company canteen and ladies of the club committee and the welfare committee.

Persons who are able to make cars available for the transport of elderly folk prior to and after the opening ceremony, are asked to phone the Shire Office some time on Friday, and those who require transport are asked to leave their names at the Shire Office, in the hope that cars will be made available.

Thomas Joseph Butler, of 5 Rose Street, Altona, Brian Foster, of 34 Millers Road, Altona, Christopher Muscat and Paul Muscat both of 60 Sargood St., Altona and Barry John Rycroft, of the Williamstown Cemetery residence, were each charged that they did behave in an offensive manner in a public place, to wit, Pier Street, Altona, on November 27.

Butler, Foster and Rycroft all pleaded guilty, and both the Muscats not guilty.

Sen.-Constable C. Griffiths, of Altona, said that at 3.15 p.m. on November 27, he was called to a disturbance in Pier Street, and went there with First-Constable McHale.

He saw Butler, Foster and Rycroft there and had a conversation with them about allegations made by the two Muscats, who had gone to the police station for him.

Sen.-Const. Griffiths said he saw Paul Muscat running across Pier Street chasing a man, and he had a motor tyre pump in his hand, wildly swinging it around trying to hit the man he was chasing.

Despite police efforts, the three men they were questioning broke away and swung punches at Muscat. As they crossed the road Muscat also ran across the road, throwing punches at the other three and singing out loudly.

There were about 60 to 80 people standing around at the time, said witness.

Eventually with some difficulty, the police managed to restrain the men and get them to the police station.

Muscat told police that the three were always picking on him and his brother. He came to police in the first place complaining about the other three but reached Pier Street again at the same time as the constables and got into trouble there.

Christopher Muscat said in the witness box that his whole family were down the street, including his mother and little brother, when the other defendants came in two cars. They called out to his family and Butler started to fight. They had hold of his brother and would not let him go, pulling at his shirt.

He tried to stop them and they all started fighting.

He went to the police station and then back to the street. Someone called "Jake" kept threatening them and his father got the car tyre pump.

There were more than three men and he did not leave it to the police to handle it because defendants were attacking his father and he was not going to let him be hurt.

Paul Muscat said he was down the street with his family when the men arrived. One called out and told his son to go home. He went and told the police and they said they would come, but when he went back and fighting started again he had got the pump.

Butler said the whole Muscat family were down in the town looking for trouble and had done so for a couple of years.

Foster said he had been hit with the car pump on the back of the neck for no reason, as Muscat's son was not being hit at all, and no fighting had started until the police arrived.

Rycroft said he did not see anyone hit, although punches were thrown, and he did not know how the trouble first began as he was at the park at the time.

Mr R. Prowse, SM, said the two Muscats should have refrained from doing anything when the police arrived, but as their tempers were aroused, did foolish things. They had been sufficiently punished by being in custody for some hours and the charges against them would be dismissed.

The other three defendants had behaved like hooligans in the street and their charges could not be regarded lightly. He fined them £10 each or 14 days imprisonment.

Twin Lakes Picnic

Altona Youth Club will go on a picnic to Twin Lakes, Ballan, but only if the response from parents, friends, and club members warrants the running of buses as the subsidising of such a trip necessitates a serious drain on club finances if there are not sufficient persons making the trip. Proposed date for the picnic is Sunday, December 18. Fares will be 10/- for boys and girls, and 15/- adults. Facilities are available for barbecue. There is an ideal picnic ground and amusements for the kiddies. Those willing to participate please contact committee members at club nights at earliest.

Break Up Night

The annual break up night will be held at the Youth Centre on Friday, December 16, at 7.30, and will take the form of a social evening for all members, parents and friends. Any members or interested persons who can contribute towards the evening's entertainment please report to the club or leaders as soon as possible.

Activities will re-commence on Monday, January 23, 1961.

Instruction

The club welcomes Mr Kee, a very experienced gymnastic instructor, who will coach a boxing team to competitive standard. Mr Kee is available for classes on Tuesday evenings.

Marching Girls Section

The marching girls' teams commenced their summer season of competitive work when they took part in a display and competition at Burwood last Sunday. Four hundred girls took part and two trophies were won by Altona Juniors while the Seniors also gained one. Next Sunday the girls will be present at Yarraville football ground in a competition to assist the Tweddle Hospital.

YOUTH ON DRIVING COUNT

A 17-year-old youth was this week fined £5 at Williamstown Court for driving a motor car on September 18 without being licensed to drive. He was Arthur Parkinson, of 181 Maidstone Street, Altona.

You Must Vote Saturday

The Shire Secretary (Mr J. W. Waters), returning officer for the Council reminds all rate payers that voting at Saturday's extraordinary election is compulsory. All persons enrolled on the Shire of Altona roll for the recent annual elections are required to cast a vote.

As two extraordinary vacancies have been created by the resignations of Mr R. Logan and Mr A. W. Langshaw, there will be two separate polls conducted concurrently on Saturday.

The first vacancy, for which there are two nominations, will be on blue ballot papers, and the second vacancy (three nominations) will be on white ballot papers. If a person is enrolled for two votes, then that person will receive two votes for each poll, which can be placed in the common ballot box.

Voting will open at 8 a.m. and close at 8 p.m., and it is anticipated that the count will be known by 10 p.m.

Only persons whose names are listed on the roll may claim and lodge votes, notwithstanding that there may have been an error in the roll or properties may have changed hands, or some other alteration taken place since the rolls were compiled last July.

The first function for the newly elected councillors will be the opening of the Elderly Citizens' Centre the next day.

Formal swearing in ceremony will be at the Council meeting on December 13.

CARELESS DRIVING IN FOG

At Williamstown Court this week Bruce McConachy, of 190 Queen Street, Altona, was fined £20 for careless driving.

Clive Noel Barnard, of 3 Queen Street, Altona, said that on the night of June 4 he was driving in Millers Road towards Williamstown, but heavy fog made visibility extremely poor so he decided to go home again. He pulled over to the left, looked out his window and did not see anything coming and did a U-turn. He heard a car coming then and waited for it to pass, but the other vehicle was travelling on the wrong side of the road and collided with him.

First Constable J. Locke, of Altona, said that at 11.15 p.m. on June 4 he went to the scene of the accident, which occurred about 60 yards north of Stirling Avenue. He spoke to both car drivers and McConachy told him he was travelling at about 30 mph at the time, and admitted travelling on the wrong side of the road, owing to the fog.

Mr R. Prowse, SM, said it was very careless driving under the weather conditions.

HANDY HINTS

Line a leaking vase with a thick layer of candle-grease. It will keep it water-tight.

If flower-heads are too heavy for their stalks, give added support by pushing the stems through drinking straws.

"Double" the quantity of your flowers by placing the vase in front of a mirror.

If you give a lot of winter parties, there will be few flowers in the garden. and buying flowers can be expensive. Invest instead in a couple of beautiful artificial roses (the type you might pin to an evening dress) and use them as an everlasting table centre surrounded by a few fresh green leaves.

There's no fun in being conventional with flower arrangements, so experiment. One idea is to cut a square out of a vegetable marrow at one end. Fill with water and use as a holder for leaves, flowers, grasses, and so on.

When arranging flowers in a non-transparent vase, try putting screwed up newspaper between the stems to hold them in their places.

Never leave flowers in draughts as they like even temperatures.

Carnations will last longer in the house if they are sprinkled from time to time with ice-cold water.

Put a penny in the bottom of your rose bowl. It helps keep the roses fresh.

A teaspoon of common salt in a vase of lukewarm water will sometimes revive roses and other flowers.

When growing ivy in water, keep a small piece of charcoal in the water.

Instead of throwing away children's socks when the feet are worn out put a small length of dark colored felt, cut into shoe sole shape, and attach to the feet of worn socks with wool crochet. They make warm and economical indoor slippers.

SHOES

Wrap good and silver shoes in black cloth or paper when you put them away.

Shoes should always be kept in shape when not in use. If you have no shoe-trees, try rolling up a wad of tissue paper and stuff it into the toes of your shoes. It soon takes on the shape of the shoe.

How to clean under the piano or other heavy pieces of furniture without having to move them: Wrap an oily piece of cloth around the end of a yard stick and run the stick under the pieces.

To prevent a floor from squeaking, sprinkle talcum powder between the boards.

Patent leather shoes should be dusted and wiped over with petroleum jelly, then polished with a soft cloth.

When you buy colored shoes be sure to ask about the method of cleaning them. Some colored shoes need special cleaning preparations now sold in most shoe stores.

To protect small feet against winter chills, buy a tin of winterproof boot polish and give all your children's shoes a heavy coat. If done before shoes are worn, it will keep them dry and protect the leather much longer

Tenant Stole Soft Drink

At Williamstown Court this week Frank John Crabb, of 173 Ferguson Street, Williamstown, was charged with stealing approximately 12 bottles of Tarax soft drinks, valued at approximately 10/-, between July 17 and October 14, 1960.

Phyllis Contos, of 173 Ferguson Street, Williamstown, said she owned a shop at that address and had noticed some drinks missing on a number of mornings. Crabb lived in a flat above the shop and passed the drinks on his way upstairs.

Constable Jell said he interviewed Crabb on October 17 and he admitted taking about 12 bottles of drink over the last few months.

Mrs Alma Crabb, defendant's mother, told the Court her husband had been killed in the Air Force during the war 16 years ago, and she had to rear her son, aged 18, by herself. She intended going to Legacy for help in looking after him.

The Court was told that Crabb is on a two-year probation following a charge of theft of petrol last January.

Mr R. Prowse, SM, said that nothing could be said in extenuation about this charge. Crabb had been given a chance in January and any repetition would lead to Pentridge.

However, he would impose a further fine on this occasion but it could not happen again. He fined Crabb £10 or 14 days in goal and granted a stay of four weeks.

oOo

Phillip Booth, of 268 Queen Street, Altona, was fined £2 with 12/6 costs for crossing the railway line and jumping on to the platform at Altona on July 12. Salvatore Caccama, of 38 Davies Street, Altona, was fined £3 with 12/6 costs for failing to have a ticket on a train on July 15.

Arthur Higginbottom, of 57 Maidstone Street, Altona, was fined £3 with 12/6 costs for not having a ticket on July 19.

Australia Day Observance 1961

The Council recently convened a public meeting which was attended by five people.

Purpose of the meeting was to discuss Australia Day observance in Altona Shire on Thursday, January 26, or during the following week-end.

Due to the fact that only two organisations were represented at the gathering, it was resolved that whilst the meeting was in favor of there being some form of observance in Altona, and indeed every town in honor of Australia Day, at which there would be a Flag Raising Ceremony and some other display it was agreed to forego any activities in 1961 and appeal to all persons who have flag poles to fly the Australian Flag on both the Australia Day and the holiday week-end.

Altona Youth Club is making arrangements for an Australia Day display and dance at the Youth Hall during the holiday week-end.

By R. and W. FRAZER

A few weeks ago we discussed some means of avoiding sunburn. At that stage, except in the more tropical districts, summer had barely arrived so that practically the whole of that article was concerned with the preventive aspect. We were endeavouring to persuade our readers to exercise reasonable care in exposing the skin to the sunshine, and by various means to accustom the skin gradually to being exposed before allowing it to be subjected to really hot sun for long periods.

By now summer should be here so we will concern ourselves with sunshine of greater intensity, and consequently with a somewhat different aspect of the subject of sunburn from that which occupied our interest a month or so ago.

Anything which is likely to damage the skin warrants our interest. And quite obviously there is manifest today an interest in skin-care.

Yet it would be true to say that, in spite of the vast amount of money which is spent each year on skin-care preparations, the average person does not clearly understand some of the ways in which the skin functions and the ways in which it may become damaged.

We must not forget that the skin has a most important defensive function, besides its numerous other functions.

It is constantly defending our bodies against disease organisms which, if they were allowed to break through, would cause serious trouble.

This is one reason why sunburn must not be regarded lightly; the resultant skin damage may lead to some form or another of secondary infection.

Moreover, sunburn over any large area may cause significant interference with the functioning of the sweat-glands, as well as a measure of shock.

Now, in what has just been said there is no reason for considering the sun to be an enemy. It is, in fact, one of our best friends.

The body needs sunshine, but as is the case with so many other healthful things, it must be taken in amounts which are appropriate to the persons concerned. If due care is exercised as to the periods of exposure involved and to the tolerance of the individuals who are indulging in this exposure, then the sun can greatly assist in the maintenance of health.

It may be as well to note the time of day during which the sun is most liable to do damage to the skin. Broadly, the period of the sun's greatest intensity is between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. Except on rare occasions there is little danger of sunburn before 10 a.m. and after 4 p.m.

However, even in these "what might be termed "off-peak" hours, there are some persons who should be especially careful to avoid exposure, if the sun appears to be unusually hot.

As was mentioned in our previous article on this subject, certain persons do not tolerate direct sunshine very well. Blue-eyed, fair-skinned individuals and especially those with hair tending to be auburn, with rare exceptions such persons do not possess good sun tolerance.

There are exceptions, of course, to this general rule; occasionally one sees a person with blue eyes and fair skin with a most attractive suntan; and more rarely a titian haired fair skinned person with good sun

However, the rule that blond and "red"-haired individuals with fair skin and blue eyes are particularly susceptible to sunburn is of fairly general application, and what we have said and will say concerning the harmful effects of sunburn applies in a special measure to such persons.

We have mentioned the danger of skin damage as a means to get past the defensive barrier of allowing infective organisms of our outer-covering and the possibility of sunburn interfering with some other important functions of the skin.

In recent years other harmful effects of over-exposure to the actinic rays of the sun, have been the subject of warnings from the medical profession.

We have been advised that repeated over exposure to further burning of sun burned skin not properly recovered from the original damage is particularly likely to lead to skin disfigurement. And, as previously stated, the persons requiring to exercise the greatest care are those with fair skin and blue eyes.

These facts should suffice to induce all of us to make use of the sunshine without unduly taking risks of over-indulgence and especially repeated overdoes.

To be continued next week.

Council Correspondence

The following items were dealt with by Altona Shire Council at its meeting last week:

St. John Ambulance Brigade, Youth Club, and Lifesavers: Application for permission to conduct a carnival on Logan Reserve from December 23 to January 7. Secretary's comments: An authority has been given to the Swimming Pool Appeals Committee to conduct a carnival on the beach front commencing in November. It is recommended that permission be granted to the above organisations, subject to the lodging with the Council of a £50 cash deposit, that the fair will be conducted in a proper and orderly manner, that the site will be kept clean, that all statutory authority rules will be complied with, including Public Liability Insurance on the "rides," that no camping will take place on the Reserve, and that stalls and equipment will be moved about from time to time to allow worn lawns to revive.

Granted.

Melbourne Legacy: Application to conduct Legacy Week Appeal from September 3 to 8, 1961.

Granted.

Altona High School: Thanking the Council for the use of Grant Reserve for the athletic season. The School had been successful in the combined sports, coming second out of nine schools.

Received.

City of Footscray: Advising that the committee set up to investigate Children's Traffic School was awaiting information from the Essendon Rotary Club concerning its school and the subject would again be discussed by Council on November 28.

Received.

City of Footscray: Advising that the Secretary of the Free Library Services Board would discuss the proposal of a joint municipal library service with Footscray Council at its meeting on November 21.

Comments: Note that the Mayor of Footscray has invited the Library Committee of the Shire of Altona to attend such meeting as observers at 8.15 p.m.

Received.

City of Footscray: Advising having forwarded to the Attorney General a protest against the provisions of the Crimes Act Amendment Bill and soliciting support by similar action.

Comments: As instructed at last meeting, letters have been forwarded to the 208 Municipalities of the State, local Parliamentary representatives, and church leaders and various organisations locally.

Received.

City of Footscray: Seeking support to its opposition to the logging of water shed areas, as the Council has reason to believe that the Government may yield to the pressure which is brought to bear on it, to permit controlled logging operation in the buffer areas under the control of the Board of Works. Parliamentary representatives have been advised of the Council's views.

Council will support and forward letter to Premier.

Chief Inspector State Savings Bank of Victoria: Setting out that it is the Bank's custom to adopt the name by which an area is most generally known before it sets up a branch. Accordingly, investigations were made concerning The Circle area and as postal deliveries to the Branch originated from the Newport Post Office and the Branch is about 1½ miles west of the Newport Branch and more than three miles from the Altona Branch, the name of Newport West was given. "Had we had prior knowledge of the Council's desire for the area to become known as Altona East, we should have been pleased to accede to its wishes."

Bank to be asked to reconsider.

Transport Regulation Board: Concerning the inadequacy of taxi cab service in Altona, have been noted and that the question of additional licences in the Altona area will be listed for public hearing at a time and date to be fixed (of which the Council will be advised).

Received.

Public Works Department: Advising that the jurisdiction of the Port Officer of Victoria, who is also Chief Engineer of the Ports and Harbors Branch of the Public Works Department, extends to high water mark (re Altona Foreshore Controls).

Received.

Melbourne and Metropolitan Board of Works: Replying to the Council's request of September 27 for a plan showing the position of drains and water courses and pointing out that a recent plan forwarded to all Municipalities, including Altona shows water courses specified in the MMBW Acts, the plan is an indication only and is subject to correction at such time as survey indicates a more accurate knowledge of their position. "As the water courses exist on the ground there is no need to specify exact measures as requested in the second paragraph of your communication. The 25 feet is measured from the bank of the watercourse, which is defined in the Act as the limit of the parts normally covered by water." Legal advice that this means during periods of normal rain, and excludes dry periods and floods.

Received.

Municipal Association of Victoria: Business paper of the quarterly meeting of Metropolitan Sectional Council on Wednesday, November 23, at 2.30. Cr A. W. Bond is the Council's delegate.

Local Government Department: Advising that the appeal by Mr J. McCudden against the failure of the Board of Works to permit the use of Lot 70 Sterling Avenue, for the purpose of shops, has been upheld provided not more than two service premises being constructed and set back 20 ft. from the alignment of Leicester Square.

Comments: To enable the two shops to be erected, it will be necessary for the Shire of Altona Planning Scheme 1958 to be rescinded insofar as it affects Lot 70.

Approved.

Messrs Willmore and Randell: Advising that the firm will be conferring with the Town and Country Planning Board considering its commercial layout of Planning Scheme amendment No. 2 Shopping Area.

Comments: It is understood that the Town and Country Planning Board opposes the 25 shop sites proposed by Messrs. Willmore and Randell on its Civic Centre Estate at Altona West. The Board considers that the shops should have a floor area no greater than 25 normal size shops. Conference took place this week, and the firm will advise its reaction to the Board in due course.

Council will support the Board.

Local Government Department: Requesting a sealed copy of the Order for compulsory acquisition of Somers Parade Reserve. Council will accede.

ALP Policy Has Always Governed Your Shire

Tremendous progress has been made within the Shire since its inception. This is a direct result of the ALP policy proposed and honored by your ALP councillors.

HOSPITALS

The Altona Community Hospital is now incorporated under the Hospitals and Charities Commission Act. This means it is a public hospital. Again ALP policy. Also land is acquired for the North Altona, 200-300 bed public hospital. The ALP councillors will carry on this good work.

SCHOOLS

Since inception of the new Shire, due to Labor planning, Labor councillors have convinced the Government to establish one High School, one Technical School and two Primary Schools in Altona North and one High School in Altona. This policy must continue.

SUBDIVISIONS AND STREETS

The ALP policy support all new subdivisions within the Shire provided the subdividers adhere to our strict policy of a suitable bond for security to cover made roads, footpaths, and all amenities, including sufficient parks, at no expense to Council.

This will make money available for full street construction and temporary relief for areas needing this. ANTI-LABOR COUNCILLORS WILL OPPOSE THIS IF THEY GET CONTROL OF THE COUNCIL.

PUBLIC AMENITIES

The ALP policy has provided for the Lifesavers' Club, Youth Centre, Kindergarten, Health Centre, Hospital and Elderly Citizens' in Altona. Labor is now engaged in raising money for a public swimming pool. Tenders are now let for a Baby Health Centre at Cooper Reserve and a further two are coming up. Transport must and will be improved. Anti Labor people support increases in interest rates of houses and land.

INDUSTRIES

Under ALP policy we have encouraged the establishment of many industries after they have given necessary securities to the ratepayers and will not diverge from this policy to satisfy anti-Labor councillors within the Shire. In the correct planning of the Shire we have been able to entice many millions of pounds of industry which will provide many thousands in revenue plus employment to local workers.

This planning has been highly recommended by all Statutory authorities and advisers to our present Government. This can be borne out by the incident where the present Government was forced to back down on the location of the ICI factory on the Explosives Reserve.

Labor councillors have also been instrumental in forcing the issue on Fire Brigade protection and also for a new Fire Brigade together with permanent staff, costing approximately £50,000.

Labor councillors did not increase Rates. THERE WILL BE NO INCREASE IN RATES UNDER LABOR POLICY and Council Finances are now on a sound footing.

RECREATION FIELDS

The ALP councillors have made subdividers provide these FREE OF COST TO THE COUNCIL although this has not always been to the liking of our opposition who represents vested interests.

BEACH IMPROVEMENT

ALP councillors have always pressed Public Works for further extensions to Altona beach sea wall and at present a sum of £13,000 is being used for that purpose.

The Australian Labor Party has always been solidly supported by your sitting representatives: Councillors W. Cresser, JP, President, R. J. Cooper, A. Bond, G. Den Dulk, V. Hearn and S. G. McIntosh.

Bill Lee, of Nellie Street, Altona, a young and active executive member of the Altona branch of ALP and executive member of the Blacksmith's Society of Australia. He is a keen sportsman and is associated with the local football and cricket clubs.

BILL IRWIN, aged 35, came to Australia from Northern Ireland 11 years ago and has lived in Altona area for most of that time. He now resides at 40 Clematis Avenue North Altona. He is secretary of the Brooklyn branch of the ALP, delegate to the Grant Electoral Council, past treasurer and president of the Altona Municipal Campaign Committee. He is an ex serviceman, and served with the Royal Navy in the Pacific and Australia during the last war. He is a foundation member of the Brooklyn branch of the ALP.

Paisley Progress Assoc.

In a five point letter to council last week the Paisley and District Progress Association sought attention to matters in North Altona.

Association asked for:

1. The installation of a bus shelter in Millers Road, opposite Ross Road, west side facing east, and also recommending the repainting of all existing bus shelters, possibly a light green.
2. That street name signs in North Altona area be reorganised to better positions generally and that a sign be erected indicating Paisley Railway Station, Douglas Parade signs be made to read Douglas Street, and that other changed name streets be re-signed.

3. That speed limits on Millers Road be upheld by the police.

4. That general lighting in the area in side and back streets be improved.

5. That garbage disposal be improved by dust bins, being placed back in positions right way up, with lids affixed.

Reporting to council shire secretary, Mr J. W. Waters, said

A reply has already been made that street name signs are in the hands of the Engineer's Department and that speed limits are being enforced by police. Regarding lighting, additional lights are on order and their positions will be reviewed by the Engineer's Department, meantime, the SEC will erect signs when reticulation provisions have been improved.

Association is to be advised that estimates have been framed and council cannot exceed its allocations; street signs are receiving attention; police are constantly making checks of speeds in Millers Road; SEC is attending to lighting and the association is to be asked to make sure proper receptacles are provided for collection of garbage.

P.M.G.'s DEPARTMENT NEWS ITEM

The Director Posts and Telegraphs (Mr G. N. Smith), in making an appeal for the early posting of Christmas mail, suggested that gifts and greetings should be posted not later than December 17.

He said last year a daily average of five million articles was received during the pre-Christmas period and if posting this year were made progressively during each day rather than just prior to the final closing time for mail, it would ease congestion considerably at the G.P.O.

Mr Smith urged members of the public to pack all gifts carefully and to address them fully and clearly. If this were done he was confident that all Christmas mail would be delivered promptly.

MORE BUSES WANTED

Mr J. Joiner, proprietor of Altona Bus Lines, is to be invited to council to discuss the transport situation in the Altona North area.

At last week's meeting of council Cr A. Bond said the Sunday service was totally inadequate and those wishing to go to the beach had to catch the 1.30 p.m. bus and leave again at 5.30.

It's atrocious the way the service is. Shopkeepers are losing business too. We should try to push ahead and get a better service," he said.
